Day 1

Huey (Moderator):

Twas the nights before Christmas, but not all is well! The village of Vigilstone has barely found its footing, yearning to grow into a prosperous town. But the spirits of the forest felt the blights of humans, who were destroying the natural wonders of their sacred land. The Guardians of the Forest dispatched three of their most gifted demons to rid the land of these destructive invaders. They infiltrated the village, masquerading as a regular villager during the day. But at night, they wreak havoc upon the humble folks. The villagers have to complete their essential buildings before they are all killed!

Demons will have to destroy all buildings and demoralize the villagers, enticing them to retreat to whence they came.

Good luck and have fun! Roles will be sent to you through private chats in a bit.

Huey (Mod):

Okay, roles are sent! You should have received a role by now. I will post the rules now, if you played before the rules are changed (no more levelling up), so please read the rules again. Thanks!

Note: there are multiple with the same role, except for the Mayor. There can be more than one doctor, guard, priest, or constables.

K, the Mayor:

Dear citizens, a terror is upon us!!!

Demons have invaded our peaceful town

Fayre:

I feel the villagers have a big advantage.
Because a player has 2 health points.

Leon:

I need to be offline for a couple of hours, but I'll be checking who stands out when I get back.

K, the Mayor:

Our little town needs prosperity

And so we have to build infrastructure

Francesca:

How can we protect against the demons?

Should be build a church to shelter? Can the priests protect us from this terror?

Fayre:

I agree.

Francesca:

What does the doctor think of this? Can he cure the possessed?

Alex:

I'm a peaceful villager who just finished a class, let me get through the chat.

Fayre:

I have a question.

If people get hurt, do they know they're hurt?

Huey (Mod):

Yes, injured players will be known to everyone the next day.

Zoey:

I wanna win, at least once[Sigh]

Alex:

Without losing friends?

Zoey:

Win with friends

Leon:

Is anyone here a demon, hands up.

Zoey:

Are you?

Leon:

[Lol]

Alex:

@Leon are you?

Leon:

No.

A lot of people being very quiet today.

Vlad:

Silence is golden.

Leon:

And suspicious.

K:

The mayor is conducting a citizen census.

For taxation purposes.

Could everyone please file their occupations

Leon:

That's not going to happen.

The demons will lie and they'll know who to attack.

Zoey:

I would like to vote for building the town hall before night fall.

K, the Mayor:

Who else is up for building a townhall.

Leon:

What's the disadvantage of building it?

Huey (Mod):

Nightfall in a few minutes, should be ok, it's only the first day. We'll see how the game goes after the first night. You all can have more discussion the next day :)

Huey (Mod):

Nightfall in a few minutes, should be ok, it's only the first day. We'll see how the game goes after the first night. You all can have more discussions the next day :)

The Mayor will take into account of all the discussions but will ultimately what to build at night.

Nightfall, everyone go to sleep! No talking in here during night.

Night 1

The Mayor built the Town Hall.

The Constable investigated Leon.

The doctor had the night off, no one was injured yet.

Priest 1 protected Leon.

Priest 2 Protected Leon.

Guard 1 guarded the Watch Tower.

Guard 2 guarded the Town Hall.

Demon 1 grew in power and became the Master Demon.

Demon 2 attacked Alex and K

Demon 3 attacked the Town Hall, which was guarded by Guard 2. The guard and the demon both got injured, the building survived.

Day 2

Huey (Mod):

The first light of dawn broke over Vigil Valley, spilling through the narrow mountain pass and casting a soft glow on the quiet village. Birds chirped faintly in the distance, but there was an unsettling stillness in the air, as if the world itself was holding its breath. The village, nestled between towering peaks and bordered by the river, had always been a peaceful haven, but last night had shattered that serenity.

The following players were injured last night:

1. Alex
2. K
3. Lily (莉丽)
4. Zoey

The following buildings are built:

1. Watch Tower
2. Town Hall

Buildings left to build: Church, Hospital, Constable Station.

Please discuss what to build next and who to hang, or to go without hanging anyone today.

Fayre:

There are so many wounded today, I suggest we build a hospital.

Leon:

Woah, 4 injured [Terror]

And not me [Lol]

If a Priest protected me then, thanks [Smart]

Vlad:

@Leon, yeah yeah yeah... you are not even trying to hide your demonic nature.

had you on for a demon even before the first night, pretty certain now.

Fayre:

Three demons, four wounded, and I think one demon has been upgraded

Vlad:

as for the other two not sure.

@Fayre, exactly my thought.

Leon:

@Vlad. I wasn't suspicious of you, keeping quiet, but maybe you were just keeping a low profile...

Vlad:

anyway, it is my RL bedtime, but if it comes to voting i ll go with Mr.Rainey here.

As for buildings hospital sounds good.

Leon:

@Fayre, Upgrade is possible.

Leon:

@Vlad. WTF! Based on what?

Alex:

Why the f* do we have so many victims!?

@Leon, I guess based on his love to you

But I'll consider that as well reasoning:

Vlad:

while it is possible that wounded are also demons, i will exclude them for now.
so that leaves 6 villagers.

K is mayor so that makes 5.

I exclude myself so that is 4.

I am not really sure about fayre so that is 3 sus

Alex:

[Speechless]

Vlad:

plus the fact that alex has been wounded makes you(and me tbh) prime sus.

K, the Mayor:

Wow, the demons attacked me, the mayor

Alex:

Hah surprise surprise

With these many injuries, I vote for hospital so far

Does the Priest have the power already? We have no Church. Am I missing something?

Leon:

Oh, yeh [Sigh]

Alex:

Oh yeah blah blah blah

Huey (Mod):

The rules are updated. Please skim them again when you have a chance. In this game everyone has basic powers without the buildings being built.

Alex:

Oops, sorry, will do.

Huey (Mod):

But having their corresponding building built will enhance their power. For example, a priest can protect 2 people instead of just one if the church is built.

Alex:

Meanwhile I'd really like to listen to some dark horses Aleta? Francesca? Lily? Chris? Who the heck stabbed me?

Francesca:

I was going to say building a church for protection seems sensible, but if the mayor is injured I guess we should go for a hospital first

Alex:

Yeah, but we got two injuries in one night. If we have 2 doctors which is very possible, we can be very safe.

Alex:

Who votes for hospital? In case we have 2 doctors they can heal 4 people per night and that is what we need after 4 injuries.

K:

Okay do we build a hospital?

Alex:

Do doctors know who was injured? They only see the names through the day, right? Cause doctors wake up before the demons.

Let's wait for dark horses too. Aleta, Chris, Lily.

K:

Yea, why are they not talking

Do we also vote to execute a witch in the daytime?

Alex:

We can do only one, right? Hanging or building

Huey (Mod):

This is also an updated rule. You can discuss what to build but only the mayor will decide what to really build. So this is not an action by the village.

So you all should try to convince K on what to build, but for your day action, decide if you want to call for a hanging. If yes I will ask for a hanging vote call.

Alex:

I see

K, the Mayor:

Ok

Leon:

Thanks for protecting me guys, but I think we need to focus on other people next night so that we can keep our numbers up.

Vlad:

@Leon, [Lol][Lol][Lol]

Zoey:

@Leon, [Boring][Boring][Boring]

Leon:

[Smile]

Vlad:

[Noose image]

Leon:

Let's do the maths on who is injured and what the Demons did guys.

Huey (Mod):

Don't you guys have jobs to go to and work to do?

I'll call for a hanging vote or to end the day later in the evening, once everyone has gotten off work and had a chance to catch up.

Vlad:

@Huey, priorities

Leon:

I don't really have any ideas about hanging at this time, but we have a lot of injuries and a hospital seems like a fair solution.

Leon:

I don't like the idea of putting my role out there, but I'll come clean and say that I'm a doctor. I wasn't able to heal anyone, I had the night off.

Probably means I'll get Demons attacking me, but I'll take the chance.

Chris:

[OK]

Lily:

Hey hey, I guess I missed everything, and I even got injured—OMG! So, kind doctor, please, heal me next night! I don't want to die at the beginning of the game! And if we need to build something, I also vote for a hospital too!

Leon:

I don't want to promise anything because I don't want the demons to plan their actions against mine [Doge]

Lily:

So, if I'll be attacked one more time, then I'll die?

Leon:

If I or you are protected next night the chance of death is low [Hug]

Lily:

Let's just build a hospital [ThumbsUp] then there will be more chances for us to survive

Leon:

@K. [ThumbsUp]

Fayre:

It's okay. Our priest will protect you

Zoey:

Can someone protect me or heal me tonight as well?

[Innocent child image]

Zoey:

I don't wanna die so soon... again

Huey (mod):

Just an FYI in case anyone missed it.

There could be multiple players with the same role (except 1 mayor). After the AI randomly selected 3 demons, I seeded the AI to randomly assign roles to the rest of the players with the following:

3 doctors , 3 priests, 3 guards, 3 constables, 1 mayor.

Hope that clears up any confusion [Lol]... or maybe not

Aleta:

Hi everyone, I will be available during lunch break. Just went through all messages.

6 actions 4 injured that means we have one master demon and most likely one demon attacked the priest who protected herself/himself that's why didn't get injured. First night I guess priest would have protected himself/herself (and not Leon).

We can ask the doctor to heal the Mayor as for now he is the obvious target among all injured villagers. And if the Mayor decides to build a hospital the doctor can heal to people (if we have 2 doctors that's even better).

If Leon is really a doctor he can heal I guess himself and the Mayor.

But if Master Demon attacks the mayor we need extra protection for him.

Leon:

@Aleta, I'm not injured and can only heal people who are, you'd know that if you were a doctor, so obviously you're not. [Doge]

Last night I wasn't able to heal anyone because I only know who's injured in the morning.

If you have a role, please announce it so that I won't feel as suspicious of you anymore.

Aleta:

@Leon, Sorry, my bad, just checked again who was injured.

K, the Mayor:

Maybe we should have a hanging this round

Aleta:

@Leon, There is no need to reveal my role for now. You sounded suspicious from the beginning don't try to blame the rest [Smart]

Huey (mod):

Some corrections, based on the misinterpretation of the rules I saw. (I know I know there is a lot of text to read). Anyways:

Doctors can heal themselves

Priests can not protect themselves.

Let me know if there are any other confusions.

K, the Mayor:

The gallows, the gallows ! Prepare the gallows

Fayre:

So, who do you think is the demon?

Aleta:

@Huey, Ah, I still get confused with the rules remembering the old ones, sorry.

Leon:

I'm scared to hang an innocent to be honest. The game is very difficult if we make a mistake. [Frown]

Vlad:

@Fayre, apart from @Leon you mean?

Vlad:

not sure, will base my sus of the others based on the voting and next night...

Vlad:

@Huey, so what you are saying is there are 3 constables?

meaning 3 people were investigated last night?

Alex:

Just finished, let me catch up with all the messages

Alex:

I believe that was a list of possible roles for AI and as we have 10 players minus 3 demons, 7 people have those roles potentially. Only one mayor but everyone else is up to 3

Francesca:

Can demons have roles? It's not clear from the rules

Francesca:

Would be cool if villager/demon drafting was separate from the roles [Sly]

Alex:

Omg Francesca you are cruel

Leon:

I trust K, I give my vote to him.

Alex:

10 people - 3 demons, if we hang one innocent we will have 3 against 6, one master demon can kill a healthy person, 2 demons can hit injured 4 people and then we lost the game immediately

Leon:

[Grimace]

Alex:

I would not risk it now to hang, as I do have ideas about only 2-3 people out of 9 except me. So I'd like to hear anything from Zoey and Chris. The darkest horses (or demons?) so far @Leon, So what do you vote for?

Alex:

K, the Mayor:

So who shall we be hanging tonight? The gallows are ready

Leon:

@Alex, He's innocent. I just want to play safe first day.

Alex:

Come on. Seriously. What's your idea? Who do you vote for to hang?

Leon:

@K.

Alex:

@Leon, Well we all know that

Vlad:

@Alex, meaning if we don't we will have a 4 against 6 and a night where demons have 4 hits with already injured villagers. With Leon steadily raising his sus level from 80% to 90% with his each action/suggestion not a situation i fancy. Anyway I vote to hang Leon, but you vote as you wish.

Leon:

@Vlad, You are hilarious. I literally said I'd vote with the mayor who is the only non demon confirmed. Therefore "sus."

Leon:

Maybe I was unclear, I give my vote, meaning that he can declare the person to hang and I'll back him with my vote.

Alex:

@Vlad, What do you mean by 4 against 6?

Vlad:

@Leon, you just said you will vote to hang K

Leon:

You misunderstood. Meaning K will say who I vote for.

Alex:

Vlad now I suspect you

Vlad:

@Alex, 4hits worth of damage.

but yea, 3 ppl

Huey (Mod):

@Vlad. Alex interpreted that correctly. There could be potentially* up to 3 of the same roles. Potentially.

Leon:

For the record, K can declare who he suspects, I will add my vote to his. Simple.

Alex:

I actually asked Leon first and he said K is innocent. K still didn't respond to my question. I want to know what the mayor thinks

Alex:

@Vlad, Not 4. 4 from two ordinary demons and two more (including double attack) from the master)

Am I right, Huey?

Vlad, what am I missing?

Vlad

wait what?

doesn't each demon have only hit before upgrade?

Alex:

I went through rules 3 times

Let's wait for Huey.

Vlad:

i guess i ll have to go through them again too

Alex:

I believe we are mostly confused because we played before and we mix up some old and new rules

Vlad:

you are right Alex. that makes it worse will do proper math when we come home, but it feels like a day of inactivity could be fatal...

Leon:

People get off work soon, we can figure out what makes the best sense then.

Alex:

Let's wait

Especially for Zoey and Chris

Huey (Mod):

okay, more rules and clarifications for you all. (it's written so I'm not changing anything).

There are 3 demons at the start of this game, EACH demon can do these actions each night:

- 1) attack 2 different people, can't attack the same target though.
- or
- 2) heal themselves
- or
- 3) Do nothing and grow in power to become Master Demon.

===

Master Demon: There can only be one Master Demon at any time. the Master Demon have these additional powers:

- 1) If investigated, will shown falsely as a villager
- 2) Has to be hanged twice if healthy, or hanged once if already injured.
- 3) CAN target the same person or building twice in one night.

Hope that helps anyone confused about demon actions.

Alex:

If we hang a demon, do we know if it's the usual or master?

Vlad:

also Huey, the later mayors can be demons, but the first one cannot? @Huey

Alex:

Later mayors?

Vlad:

meaning if a mayor dies, we elect a new one

Huey (Mod):

@Vlad, That is correct

Huey (Mod):

@Alex, When someone is hanged, I will announce their base roles. So no, you won't know if it's a regular demon or master demon. But if you hanged someone and they don't die, well.... You can deduce that yourself [Lol]

Alex:

Oh I see. Sh*t, okay.

Francesca:

Can the priest's blessing protract someone from hanging?

Huey (Mod):

Sorry no

Alex:

Then they have to reveal their roles for sure

Francesca:

Would make for multiple options when someone miraculously survives a hanging....

Not that the demons need any more advantages [Facepalm]

Alex:

Sounds beautiful but scary, I'm sure Huey will save if for the future games. Huey, I am booking my spot for the next one!

Vlad:

Some basic numbers:

There are 4 injured and 6 not injured players.

While it is possible that one injured player is a demon, it is not something i would account for on day 2, unless Francesca is a demon in which case this is probably certain to happen[Grin]. But putting that aside, this basically means that 6 not injured players (Aleta, Francesca, Feyre, Chris, Leon and me) all have a base 50% sus rate because there are 3 demons and 6 suspects. This goes even further if you are one of these six because when you exclude yourself, Aleta would for example find that Leon, me or Feyre each have a 60% of being a demon.

That is already quite high if you take into account that there are 3 demons vs 7 villagers in total (making a base sus level before night 1 30%).

It is a bit unreliable to sus players who are silent because of working Monday and all so for further profiling I can only further rely on what has been said and on past experiences, meaning how same people behaved last time they played which in my case raises someone's sus above 60% as i have mentioned.

My reasoning for this is that the optimal play for demons during the day is to stall and postpone any hangings as long as possible. While if they get a villager hanged is a bonus, it is also an overkill atm because they can just pop villagers at night.

Huey (Mod):

lol Vlad you are such a nerd [Lol][Lol][Lol]. I love it

Vlad:

Can't help myself.

Alex:

Wait

Counting

I'm trying to believe that you are a villager but if your calculations are wrong, then you are trying to convince us you are a good guy while you are not

Let me count

Sounds reasonable. Hmm, I feel like you are the next corpse if Leon is a demon as you said.

Alex:

Are you a demon? @Leon

Do Zoey and Chris work together with you?

Too quiet

K, the Mayor:

Too many quiet people

They are trying to avoid suspicion by going under the radar

Alex:

Including you[Lol]

Vlad:

or over the radar.

Alex:

What do you think? K.

K:

I am the Mayor

Vlad:

he can't be a demon, right?

K:

Everyone should know this

My role is open and known to everyone

Vlad:

[ThumbsUp]

Alex:

You are quiet!

K:

I am the one who decides what building to put up and who to hang

Vlad:

nope. only the first.

hanging is by vote

K:

@Alex, Yea, but that's because I am reading everything and trying to figure things out

Vlad:

Leon however entrusted you with his vote to appeal himself to the people

Alex:

So you wanted to hang, who? Why?

K:

I am still watching, but a lot of people are quiet and arouse my suspicion

Alex:

Let's wait

Zoey:

?

Vlad:

? Why is Zoey on your sus list?

Alex:

Someone stabbed me. I deserve the truth

She is quiet

Her and Chris so far

Zoey:

Not me

Vlad:

She is also injured.. no?

Alex:

Yes but as you mentioned it's not 100 percent alibi

I want to listen to them

K:

The demons could injure one of their own to throw us off their scent

Alex:

Fayre too [Grimace]

K:

So being injured doesn't free anyone from suspicion

Zoey:

Let me go home first then explain everything

Alex:

I don't feel comfortable when they keep silence

Okay

Zoey:

I was in the lab the whole day

Leon:

@Alex, Doctor

Huey (Mod):

Okay, I am going to ask if we should hang someone today. If more than 3 people say yes, I will start the voting process.

Vlad:

yes

Huey (Mod):

thats one vote, two more yes'es to start the hanging process?

K:

Okay, I am gonna ask a question. Everyone should say what action they did last night.

The later you reply, the greater the suspicion

Leon:

Simple, I wasn't allowed to heal because first there's no healing.

Huey (Mod):

@K, lol this is not fair to people who doesn't have time to read all these texts no?

Francesca:

Surely it's more sus if you are checking the chat every five seconds?

Villagers are more likely to check out because they don't have much control...

Zoey:

@K. town hall was built last night, and you had one action to do, what did you do?

K:

I am the mayor, It's an open role.

Alex:

Exactly. So what did you do.

I investigated one player last night.

Zoey:

I guarded one building.

K:

I built the townhall.

Alex:

@Zoey, What did you guard?

Zoey:

@Alex, If you did so, I guess you didn't investigate me[Boring]

Town hall

Alex:

No. I checked Aleta. She is a good one

She was one of the quiet before this lunch so I started with her

Leon:

OK, let's cross Aleta off as a suspect for this day.

Vlad:

there is a minimum of one player per role? right. @Huey but a max of 3

Alex:

That's why I'm still waiting for Chris and you to share your ideas @Zulfer

@Vlad, Good question

Vlad:

if Alex is to be trusted with Aleta being safe, that raises my initial sus assumption for Leon, me, feyre and Francesca even further up.

to 75% to be exact.

Huey (mod):

@Vlad, Sorry this is not guaranteed.

Zoey:

I guess demon got hurt because of my fight back and of the four people who got injured yesterday, if Alex was telling the truth, then I would suspect Lily

Alex:

Oh f*, so it's possible we have no priest for example?

Leon:

@Zoey, Oh...

Alex:

@Zoey, Good point. But 4 attacks from 2 demons while the third upgraded is also possible

Leon:

Definitely 3 demons?

Alex:

Huey said. Can we at least trust him in this game? [Facepalm]

Leon:

We're f*ed.

Vlad:

but no one attacked the buildings? @Huey would we know if building that is protected was attacked?

Huey (Mod):

The only information I will give every morning are statuses. Injured/dead players statuses. Buildings built/not built or sabotaged statuses.

Alex:

This is not helping

Vlad:

so it both possible that zoey really is a guard and has injured Alex/Lily or that she protected a building that was not attacked as well as that she is lying about protecting the building... great

Alex:

I'm even more nervous about her now

Zoey:

@Vlad, I guarded the town hall, so one demon got injured, and I guess I got injured because another demon attacked me

K:

We should allocate tasks for the roles to do tonight to specific people , so that we know who is lying

Leon:

@Zoey, OK, I believe you.
At this time I feel 100% about Zoey and K.

Zoey:

Thank you

Alex:

So one attacked you and me? K? The other attacked a building. The third demon upgraded wtf!? One demon can not attack 3 ppl

Alex:

Now I suspect Zoey and Leon soooo much

Leon:

[Lol] Funny

Alex:

Come on!? It's illogical

Zoey:

@Alex, Why you don't need Lily and Chris's words?

Vlad:

@Alex, +1

Alex:

One is upgrading. The second attacked a guarded building and got injured (1). The third attacked 2 3 4 !?

Leon:

Demons run wild, what's to understand.

Alex:

@Zoey, I've seen Lily's message today. Not you. Not Chris

Zoey:

I have no clue now

Alex:

Hmmm interesting

Zoey:

I'm a guard for sure

Leon:

@K. Let me know if you need my vote. We can figure this out quickly. If one demon falls, the rest will panic.

K:

Ok.

Let me wait for the others to chat about their actions last night.

Alex:

Okay. Let's wait for Chris to show up. And hopefully Lily as you mentioned

K:

@Huey, We need more time boss, this night is the most crucial

Alex:

@Chris @Lily

Chris:

I'm here.

Alex:

Soooo?

Leon:

@Chris Some people are demons, if you think that the chat has any suspicious characters let us know.

Alex:

Who do you suspect based on the chat? Why? Wanna hang? Who? Why?

K:

What action did you perform last night

Chris:

I saved a life!

Alex:

Which [Speechless]

With 4 injured

Chris:

It's hard to suspect someone. Need to hang, i think.

Chris:

@Alex, Doctor

Zoey:

How many doctors we have?

Leon:

[Raised Hand]

Zoey:

Can doctor heal someone the first night?

Leon:

No

You can't heal when nobody is injured.

Vlad:

this

Leon:

Oh now you believe me [Sweats]

Vlad:

only about this. I still claim you are a demon.

Vlad:

and the more you wriggle, the more certain I am.

Leon:

I think I need to call a vote. I think Vlad is a MD and I don't want to get killed this night.

Aleta:

Based on everything I have read so far at this point I trust Alex who checked me (if necessary I can reveal my role) and Vlad, his calculations as a villager are great. He did the same last time helping us villagers.

Leon just tries to team up with obvious villager K and for some reason he trusts Zoey. (I don't know about her at this point, she might be right being injured from an attack on the Town Hall). Leon didn't say anything about Alex.

I also think it's better to hang a suspicious demon today.

Chris:

I saved a life , - which ? - doctor's life ,)

Alex:

How do you know who is a doctor?

Aleta:

Same question [Chuckle]

Zoey:

Actually I checked the rule again, I didn't see doctor cannot heal someone the first night[Dizzy]Please correct me if I missed something

Alex:

The doctor can heal some the first night. But the doctors role is before Demons so no one is injured yet. Why would they heal?

Zoey:

Got it

Leon:

It's about the sequence of actions. Nobody is injured until the demons attack.

First night is special.

Zoey:

Now I get it.

Lily:

Hi again! It took me some time to go through almost 100 messages, but I looked at the rules again, and I think I know why I got injured. As villagers, I believe it's very important for us to build all the necessary buildings, right? According to my role, I've been protecting one of the buildings, so it was probably attacked—and that's how I got injured too.

Lily:

And I still hope that during the second night, some kind doctor will heal me. I really think we need a hospital! We need all those buildings to win and to protect ourselves!

So, about hanging someone—it's a bit scary to hang an innocent person.

Leon:

We have so many injuries and I think we have a big problem second night unless we get a demon.

If I promise to heal anyone it just gives demons an advantage.

K:

Who has yet to speak?

Chris:

I think @Alex , @Francesca, @Leon , @Vlad are innocent

Zoey:

@Lily, Which building did you protect?

Zoey:

I vote for hanging, cause I already knew who is lying

Lily:

The Watch tower

Francesca:

You can't unhang a villager if we are wrong

Leon:

Hang

K:

@Lily, What was your action last night?

Lily:

I have protected the watch tower , I wrote about it

Zoey:

@Lily, The watch tower is already built, and if you guarded the watch tower, and the demon attacked the watch tower, the demon should got injured 🤔

Leon:

4 people were injured.

Aleta:

Oops, do we have three guards? I am the guard. Protected the watch tower and didn't get hurt 😊.

Zoey:

Do we have two guards?

Leon:

We can have two of anything. Except mayor.

Zoey:

I protected the town hall

Lily:

Or maybe I was just attacked by a demon, I don't know that 🤖

Zoey:

Or maybe you are attacked by one of the guard [Lol]

Lily:

Can guards attack each other?

Leon:

[Lol] This is crazy.

Zoey:

So crazy

Alex:

@Leon then heal me!?

Alex:

Will see if you are a doctor

Alex:

@Huey, if two guards guard the same building, will you tell them?

Zoey:

Good question

Aleta:

I don't think he will. Another question. And if two guards guard the same building do you again roll the dice to decide who gets injured [Grimace]?

Vlad:

ok, so that is enough people calling for a vote. Shall we cast the votes then?

Leon:

@Huey Do you have tense voting music?

Vlad:

With 10 people, do we need 6 to hang or just the majority of those who actually vote?
@Huey

Anyway, I am logging off for a while, so I cast my vote as expected: Leon.

Leon:

Some people just don't want to win [Sigh]

Huey (Mod):

No, priests doctors guards can select the same target unknowingly

K:

Hmm

Huey (Mod):

The base werewolf and blood on the clock tower requires half or more of alive players to successfully vote to hang

In our case, I think a good rule is at least half of alive players to hang. To for today, a person will need to have 5 votes or more to be hanged

Leon:

I will save my defense for the vote.

Lily or Aleta, one of them are lying

But I suspect Lily the most 🤔

Alex:

I checked Aleta but now I'm thinking about the master demon. If it's her she would be innocent for investigation [Sob][Sob][Sob]

Vlad:

she upgrades after constable investigates or not? meaning it shouldnt affect your investigation

Alex:

True. I believe it activates in the end

Vlad:

so are u voting?

Chris:

Let's vote?)

Alex:

If we hang, I'll go for Chris. Between Aleta and Lily (if we trust Zoey) I believe in Aleta but there could be 2 guards

Chris with his "I saved doctors life" when no one is hurt yet was interesting

Zoey:

Let's vote for hanging

Alex:

Okay. Hang

Leon:

Hang

Alex:

Three yes Huey

Vlad:

aleta said yes before too.

Huey (Mod):

Start your voting, 5 or more to hang, ties are no hang

Alex:

Chris hang

Zoey:

hang Chris

Alex:

I'm about to start a class. Will check later

Chris:

Noooo.

It's a big mistake

Alex:

Bla bla bla

Huey (mod):

So 2 votes for Chris, by Zoey and Alex

Alex:

Vlad also voted before

Chris:

My vote against @Zoey

Huey (mod):

Votes so far are:

Chris: 2 (by Zoey and Alex)

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Zoey: 1 (Chris)

I'll set a deadline by 1am tonight [Lol]. If all players voted the day will automatically end. If by 1am we don't have a consensus no one is hang and the day will end. You can change your vote up to 2 times.

K:

Chris gets my hang vote

Leon:

Hang Chris, as promised @K. [Respect]

Huey (Mod):

Chris: 4 (Zoey Alex k Leon)

Zoey: 1 (Chris)

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Chris:

Guys, i am strongly recommending you reconsider your decision. You are making big mistake

Chris:

You already found some kind of incompatibilities @Zoey

Zoey:

[Boring][Boring][Boring][Boring][Boring]

Leon:

They haven't even voted. [Lol]

If they are demons they're not taking the chance to kill you.

Chris:

My role has already saved one life. Be careful with your choices

Leon:

@Huey Could two demons kill one person first night?

Huey (Mod):

Demons can not target the same person each night. Only the master demon can.

Leon:

Well that settles that.

Huey (Mod):

4 people still haven't voted: Francesca is doing a hash run, Fayre is probably in a 5 hour gaming session, Lily is probably taking care of her cat, and Aleta is out partying. You all should go to bed and check the result tomorrow IRL [Lol]

Alex:

Hahaha Huey do you track us in so many details? How do you know hahahaha!?

Huey (Mod):

So Francesca did send me a message to give her vote to @K. I'll add this vote and see if she wants to change it by the deadline

Chris: 5 (Zoey, Alex, K, Leon, Francesca)

Zoey: 1 (Chris)

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

If no other changes by deadline, Chris has the most votes, and the minimum number of votes and will be hanged. Unless there is a tie.

Chris:

Don't kill me!

Chris:

Come to your senses, change your mind before it's too late.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

Amen

Alex:

@Chris so could you please explain this?

"I saved a life, which? Doctor's life".

So how did you know he is a doctor when you saved him? He said it long after the night

Chris:

[Screenshot of previous public messages]

We can kill him, if he lies

Alex:

[Grimace] well, you did not explain how you know that

Fayre:

I'm a priest. I protected @Leon last night

Chris:

Fing b*s* !

Chris:

[Expletives image]

Chris:

[Expletives image]

Alex:

[Grimace]

Fayre:

Of course, I could be a villager

Chris:

I'm changing my vote. I'm voting against @fayre

Fayre:

Why do you think I'm the demon?

Huey (mod):

Chris: 5 (Zoey, Alex, K, Leon, Francesca)

Fayre: 1 (Chris)

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Chris:

Cause you are lied 🙄

K:

How did he lie?

Chris:

@Fayre, This is false

Fayre:

I'm voting against @Chris

Chris:

@Francesca , @Leon open your eyes

Aleta:

Just went through the messages. Vote for hanging@帝安. Would be good if during the night someone can check @Leon

Chris:

Such stupidity

K:

Then you need to be more transparent

I am the mayor, that's obvious. So what you should do is disclose information honestly. If you get targeted by the demons at night, then it will help is catch them even faster

Huey (Mod):

Chris: 7 (Zoey, Alex, K, Leon, Fayre, Francesca, Aleta)

Fayre: 1 (Chris)

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Fayre:

Pastor or not, all kinds of powerful people are still alive, so please ask the mayor to assign tonight's tasks to our doctor and priest, guard, and Constables

K:

Yes, we also need to assign tasks to verify who is who Task allocation - doctor to heal who? Priest to bless who? Guard to protect who?

Constable to investigate who?

Let's suggest the recipient(s) of the actions before night begins

Alex:

I wanted to check Zoey [Grimace]

Chris:

Open your eyes

Huey (Mod):

It's getting late. Only person that still haven't vote is Lily. She is new to this type of game, and msged me earlier she was probably abstaining from voting. She is probably already asleep, so I'm thinking of closing the night a bit earlier than the deadline. Maybe in 5 minutes. So any last words from anyone?

K:

Since we have may have 2-3 real constables we should check 2 or more people, same with the priest, doctor etc. best to separate tasks so that one person doesn't get double protected and the other person left unprotected

Huey (Mod):

Everyone is probably asleep k [Lol]. Probably should have discussed this earlier.

K:

So, who are the constables- we need to check zoey, lily and who else

This might is the most crucial. I suggest we continue this discussion in the morning

Alex:

I'll check Zoey this night

Huey (Mod):

In most cases, long days are an extra unfair advantage to the villagers. Since I have already set a deadline, let's stick to it. If next time you think a deadline is too short please let me know.

It's 12:40, I guess we can at least wait until the deadline in 20 minutes.

K:

Which other roles do we know so that we can allocate tasks to them right here in the group since Huey will have to ask them at night what they will do

If LARaine is a doctor, then he should heal me.

Alex:

But he promised to heal me no?

Alex:

@K, We have guards I believe.

Fayre:

We have Town Hall. Our mayor could investigate a player. If the player is a good person, even if the mayor dies, you can pass the role of mayor to that player

Huey (Mod):

Just to clarify. If the mayor dies, the village has to vote for a new mayor. Just like voting to hang someone.

Without a mayor, no buildings are built at night. So the villagers won't be able to win that way.

Fayre:

Without a mayor, no buildings are built at night. So the villagers won't be able to win that way.

Chris:

[Rude Giphy]

Huey (Mod):

The villagers gathered in the town square, their faces twisted in a mixture of fear and anger. The air was thick with suspicion, the weight of a terrible decision pressing down on them. Chris stood at the center, his hands bound, he was defiant, cursing the crowd with expletives unbecoming of his role and stature. But his protestations fell on deaf ears.

As the noose was tightened around his neck, Chris's eyes scanned the faces of the crowd—his friends, his neighbors—each one stewing in uncertainty, yet all bound together by one painful, irrevocable belief: he was the demon.

The trapdoor fell, and the world went dark.

Chris is hanged. He was a priest.

It is now night. Village go to sleep!

Chris:

[Giphy of the Joker sarcastic clapping]

Huey (Mod):

Reminder: if you are dead, you become a spirit. Spirits have one last vote for the rest of the game, to use as they see fit during any hangings on subsequent days. They can also can participate in discussions in the public chat, but they do not get waken up at night to use their powers.

Hangings or mayor voting.

Zoey:

@Alex, Pls! Pls! Pls!

Leon:

I make no promises. I will be strategic about who to heal, the demons will only be able guess who that is. hopefully this will cause a wasted action for them.

Huey (Mod):

No talking during night phase! Go to sleep!

Fayre:

Oh, I was wrong. There are no ordinary people. We all have superpowers

Huey (Mod):

Ssssh!

Huey (Mod):

Think of it this way. There are hundreds of villagers in the village but they are ordinary people living their ordinary lives. Farming and building and such. You all are the special villagers everyone look up to. Every player in this game has a role. There are no ordinary villagers among the players.

Night 2

The Mayor built the Hospital and investigated Aleta.

The Constable investigated Zoey.

The remaining Priest protected Lily.

The Doctor healed Lily and Zoey.

Guard 1 guarded the Hospital

Guard 2 guarded the Town Hall

The Master Demon double-attacked Fayre, who had no protection, killing him.

Demon 2 attacked the Watch Tower, destroying it.

Demon 3 attacked Zoey and Aleta, injuring them.

Day 3

Huey (Mod):

The morning of Christmas Eve arrived with an eerie silence over the village. The usual cheer of the season, the warmth of fires crackling in hearths, and the faint scent of pine and baked bread were nowhere to be found. Instead, the village awoke to a grim stillness, a brokenness in the air that seemed to linger heavier with each passing minute.

The damage was clear from the moment the first villager stepped out into the cold. The Watch Tower, once a towering sentinel against the dark, had been reduced to rubble.

Splintered wood and shattered stone lay scattered across the square, the remnants of what had been the last line of defense.

Inside the village, the heartache was felt most deeply at the small, sacred temple where Fayre, the village's beloved priest, had been found. His body, laid out in his modest home, was a tragic sight—a symbol of the demon's wrath.

The villagers gathered at the Town Hall, their faces drawn with grief but also with an unspoken resolve. The demons had come again, and they had taken much, but they had not taken everything. The spirit of Vigilstone was not so easily broken. As the morning light dimmed behind the veil of clouds, the villagers whispered a prayer—both for the souls lost and for the strength to rise again.

The following players are injured:

Alex,
K, Aleta,
Zoey

The following players are dead:

Chris (priest)
Fayre (priest)

Buildings standing:

Town Hall
Hospital

Buildings destroyed or not built:

Watch Tower, Church, Constable Station

Fayre:

Well, I'm the real priest, and my first day's guard was Leon, and my second day's guard was Lily.

Alex:

Good morning villagers! As promised, I investigated Zoey and she appears to be innocent. So far, I trust Zoey and Aleta.

K:

Sad about Chris

Aleta:

As I said, I guarded the Watch tower the first night and this night I guarded the Town Hall. Lily claimed to have guarded the Watch Tower first night saying she got injured. And her name is not in the injured people's list today.

K:

Hmm

Aleta:

If a guard gets injured the first night she should be injured the second day as well unless doctor heals her. Doctors please speak if you healed her and why? She didn't seem innocent from the start

Lily:

Hey hey , thank you Fayre for protecting me, it's sad 😞 that you're a ghost now, and thank you a good doctor that healed me ! Pleas show up, so I would know who can I trust! So this night I didn't protect the watch tower , I protected the hospital cos I think it's more important for villagers, as I was injured the first night.

Leon:

Fayre, Thank you. I trusted you more than some people in the village.

K:

Hmm you guarded lili?

Why lol?

Leon:

For the record, I healed K, he is still injured, meaning he was attacked.

I was hoping that if he had full health I could prove that I am a doctor to my haters.

Alex:

Can we please hear any opinions from Vlad and Francesca?

And Zoey

I only trust Aleta and Zoey

Alex:

Though I am not sure about this yet, cause if there really are 3 guards then everything is logical.

Alex:

Let's see if another doctor shows up and we will see if Lily said the truth. Otherwise she is a demon who healed herself

Let me count the actions.

Leon:

Honestly, I just finished my last class, looked at these messages and I feel like I haven't been attacked because Vlad is a demon. He 'suspected' me openly from the first moment and encouraged people to hang me. Even after telling everyone I am a doctor, I wasn't attacked.
I think it's Vlad.

Francesca:

I just healed the folks I figured the other doc(s) wouldn't heal... shrug

I have my Hippocratic oath to consider.

Alex:

Okay. So here are my thoughts out loud.

One scenario is: Lily is a demon, she healed herself, demon 2 attacked and killed Fayre and this must be the upgraded demon, demon 3 attacked and destroyed Watch tower

Another scenario is: Lily was healed by the doctor, but doctor can heal twice. Who is the second healed person? Doctor you need to speak up. So then maybe 1 demon attacked Aleta and someone else???? , demon 2 - finished Fayre and demon 3 - watch tower

Or if Leon is a doctor and he healed K, maybe demon attacked Aleta and K and that's how he is injured again.

Another scenario is: 1 demon for watch tower, 2 demon for Fayre, 3 demon attacked the building that was protected by Aleta. And that's how she got injured

I feel like if demon Lily really cured herself, then demons would not have enough actions to do all that sh*t.

Alex:

Francesca, if you are a real doctor, who did you heal?

Francesca:

Zoey and Lily

Alex:

Vlad, you are the only person who never announced his role. Is it because you are struggling what to lie? What do you do every night?

Alex:

What!? Zoey IS injured still [Awkward]

I'm completely confused, forget about this.

Leon:

I don't have any reason to doubt Francesca, but I am concerned that we lost a building.

Aleta:

For the record, Francesca, Leon and Vlad are the only ones who didn't get injured. And it's the second day

Alex:

That's why I said it [Grimace]

Leon:

Yes, I think it's suspicious that I am being left to draw people's attention. I don't exactly blend in with all the accusations thrown at me.

If I were a demon I would at least get an injury to feign innocence.

Alex:

Zoey, Chris, Vlad, Francesca, who do you suspect?
Come on! We had two days and two nights and we only managed to kill a priest.

Speak up!

Leon:

Just realized that I wasted a heal [Shrunk]

K:

How?

Leon:

I didn't know that we had another Doctor. We both healed Lily.

I thought I was the only one, so I kept my planned heals secret.

Zoey:

Thank you.

I guarded the hospital last night cause I think it important.

Leon:

[ThumbsUp]

Vlad:

Just briefly:

Leon is certainly a demon.

Alex is very likely a demon.

Not sure about the 3rd, would have said Zoey but unless she went MD she shows as a villager.

That is all from this constable.

You managed to convince K to vote and hang a priest with some good misdirection last night. hope the rest of the villagers will be wiser but i sus it is too late anyway. Anyway I won't be online today much so I vote to hang Leon and the rest is up to you.

K:

Well, Chris is partly to blame as he was reticent in revealing his role true. his playspeech was funky to say the least. still.

Vlad:

K:

The way to win is to volunteer information so freely that the demons immediately become obvious due to their unwillingness to share information lest they tell a lie

Leon:

Until Huey says that Demons win I'm going to keep healing. If you guys vote to hang me then there's not a lot I can do about that.

Vlad:

anyway, It is hard for me to imagine a playthrough where Alex would not investigate me or Leon especially if we are both claiming that the other is a demon. Aleta and Z seems like safe covers because of course she knows who villagers are..

Alex:

Vladimir well following your logic I am a Demon so why how would I even check Zoey to tell that she is innocent? If you are a real constable, then who did you check?

Vlad:

I also checked zoey. which is why i said that.

but you know who villagers are when u are a demon, right?

Vlad:

i mean basic deduction. [Lol]

Alex:

Interesting.

Who is the second one?

Vlad:

Third you mean?

second what?

Alex:

Zoey is one night who is second

Vlad:

Oh comeeee on what do you think i have been going after Leon from day 1

Alex:

Did you check him? [Speechless]

Vlad:

ok now i am certain you are a demon because this is not the usual brainy alex[Lol] of course i did first thing and i cannot conceive a universe where constable alex would not check Leon&me so...

guess who is my sus nr.2

Leon:

Your logic seems like a house of cards, because people didn't accept your vote on day1, everyone who hasn't accused me of being a demon is a demon.

[Shocked]

The one person strongly accusing me stays uninjured, and I stay uninjured too, despite claiming from day 2 to be a doctor.

The only way to prove my innocence is to die... which would reduce the number of doctors by one when we just built the hospital.

I want to Hang.

Alex:

if you checked him in the first night and you know for sure he is a demon, wtf is wrong with you to announce it to people who can actually be convinced by that

Why suddenly we get this info just now

Hang

K:

Vlad is sus

Zoey:

I vote for hanging

K:

We have our demons

The challenge is to hang them all before they get to kill us off

Leon:

Who is the MD? Is there a MD?

If we get a lesser demon we still lose.

Vlad:

There was no effect. I am very certain of you anyway and with at least one Master demon you could turn out false negative anyway. Zoey I was unsure of, but since you are obviously trying to clear her because she conflicts with Lily who you want to hang I sus she probably is a master demon.

Zoey:

Now I know you are the master demon

Vlad:

You suggested Chris, Zoey followed in a second, K bit the bait and Leon of course followed.

Vlad:

Zoey, Of course.

Zoey:

And it's impossible to have three guards, Lily is also the one of the demon haha.. exactly. just what i said alex is setting you up for

Vlad:

Leon:

I'm suspicious because I voted last [Lol]

After I deckared I would follow K's vote in advance of any voting and then did.

Vlad:

So demons are Leon, Alex and Zoey as MD. believe me or not, up to you.

Vlad:

I will just say I did not hang a priest last day and those who did are teaming up against me... so[CoolGuy]

Leon:

We need to hang, @Huey

Alex:

Hang

Leon:

There's only so much Parseltongue I can listen to.

Huey (Mod):

Okay, I'll start the hanging process if you guys think you have had enough time. But I will give some less active players time to think it through.

Please announce who you vote to hang

Vote Tally:

Leon 1: (Vlad)

Leon:

K. I'll take your lead.

Zoey:

Hang Vlad

Huey (Mod):

Vote Tally:

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Vlad: 1 (Zoey)

Also, I feel like I need to remind you guys that this is just a game and we all still love each other very much [Lol][Lol][Lol]

Aleta:

Vote: hang Francesca

Someone is sitting silently doing her job very well

Hang Vote Tally:

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Vlad: 1 (Zoey)

Francesca: 1 (Aleta)

Alex:

Vote: hang Vlad

Huey (Mod):

Hang Vote Tally:

Leon: 1 (Vlad)

Vlad: 2 (Zoey, Alex)

Francesca: 1 (Aleta)

Haven't voted: K, Francesca, Lily, Leon, Chris (spirit vote), Fayre (spirit vote)

Since there are 8 players alive: minimum needed to hang is 4

Aleta:

Okay, I have no idea about Vlad and Leon. But Francesca? she doesn't talk she doesn't get injured. For me she is an obvious demon. She even does not talk to help us. Vlad and Leon at least chat and confuse us 😏. We have three alive demons and three not injured people (Francesca, Vlad, Leon). As for me they are the demons.

Vlad:

If all 3 are demons you do want to go for one who has most chance to hang, not stall, so far that would be me.

Aleta:

We have 4 injured villagers (Alex, K, Zoey, Aleta) and one not injured villager (Lily). Even if we hang one of them today still no chance for us to win as far as I understand. Two demons (I am not even talking about MD) can attack on 4 people and win

Vlad:

If you hang a demon, build a constable station and imprison another you could pull it off.

Aleta:

Well the village has only a church and a hospital for now and we have one action for the day

Vlad:

Also by now it is rather sure that either Leon or me are demons so your idea of 3 un injured villagers being demons cant be right at least one demon is injured, probably two Chris (dead):

Vlad:

@Vladimir I support you

My vote- your vote

Aleta:

Why not? Demons can heal themselves

Vlad:

one build action and one vote action

Vlad:

Aleta, only doctor can..

but we only have one doctor so...

Aleta:

[Show rules]

Vlad:

oh wooow completeley missed this damn huey. how many rules did you change from last time.. i read this paper 3 times... too quickly obviously

Aleta:

Huey this is unfair Huey 😞 . Please consider it for the next game. In this version demons are more powerful than ever

Alex:

How did you miss it if that's what I was trying to count

Francesa:

Sorry... working. Did talk twice today... killing me would help me IRL... but you'd just be killing off one of your docs so.....

Prolly best not to kill me lol

Vlad:

i might have not read all of that[Flushed]

Francesca, any thoughts or even better votes?[CoolGuy]

Alex:

That's exactly what I was trying to consider. Healing part and what are the options. Then Francesca said she healed Zoey and then my calculations did not work

K:

Of course, Chris's hanging was totally avoidable

Francesca:

Too many demons sowing distrust... clearly either Leon or Vlad is a demon... why not kill them both?

Vlad:

I second that.

Vlad:

Would prefer L to go first, but if sacrifices have to be made... constable is a useless role from next turn anyway, without the constable house at least..

Vlad:

Also as someone who did not help hang our priest, maybe a bit more benefit of a doubt for my side?[Joyful]

Vlad:

whatever you do don't make it a tie. Aleta

Vlad:

Fayre, Lily any thoughts?

Lily:

So, I'd say I trust Francheska and Leon, because one of them—or even both—could have healed me. So it means that they're doctors

Lily:

I think I missed a big part of the conversation, so I don't really understand why you suspect Vlad and Leon. I'm a bit suspicious of Zoey, but then why did Francheska say she healed her? Alex also says that Zoey is innocent, but Vlad suspects Zoey. So, I'll support the most votes, and K. I guess, as a mayor, can't be a demon.

Alex:

Vlad was messing around when he did not announce he checked Leon and found a demon. Why we only know about that on day 3?

We agree at least on one. K is innocent. [Facepalm]

Francesca:

I'll go with Vlad

Huey (Mod):

Hang Vote Tally:

Leon: 2 (Vlad, Chris)

Vlad: 3 (Zoey, Alex, Francesca)
Francesca: 1 (Aleta)

Vlad:

this is why. Alex. i like the no revealing your roles more.

K:

Not revealing your roles is straight up sabotaging the villagers

And thats super sus

Vlad:

if you say so.

anyway, you have 3 votes worth so you can make it over in minutes...K

not really, because it also disables demons from knowing who to target.

based on roles

K:

It's okay if the demons target a villager , because by doing so they reveal themselves

This game is strategically different than a classic werewolf or mafia hidden role games because of the buildings and having multiple players with the same role. So villagers should be organized and figure out who should protect what at night. And to do that we need to know each others roles.

Vlad:

agree to disagree?

K:

If everyone had been upfront with information about their roles, the villagers would win in this round

Vlad:

no they wouldnt.

K:

Of course of course it's just a game

It's okay if a villager or two dies in the course of ultimate victory

Vlad:

Spoken like a true revolutionary[Lol] anyway, let us get it over with Fayre (dead):

I'm going to keep my vote

Lily:

So, guys, I'm about to go to bed, @K. are you going to vote for someone? I'll follow you.

K:

Lily, there is an interesting conflict here , but there is also something interesting in the voting pattern

So I will need your help

Alex, could you change your vote?

We should hang Francesca

And we need 4 votes to do this

Alex:

Hmmm

To be honest I will keep insisting on Vlad still, but just because you have an open role, I'll follow you. We guys were sh*tty organised last night

Alex:

Vote change. Francesca

K:

Vlad might be a demon, and he could very well be.

But we will save him for the next round and hang Francisca this time

So Francesca it is

Lily:

K, are you sure? I actually think that she might be a doctor, but ok , if you insist I will also give my voice for Francesca

Huey (mod):

Ok, so tally is

Hang Vote Tally:

Leon: 2 (Vlad, Chris)

Vlad: 2 (Zoey, Francesca)

Francesca: 4 (Aleta, k, Alex, Lily)

Abstained: Fayre

Haven't voted: Leon

K:

Could you tag me to any suggestion that she might be the doctor?

Vlad:

how about you also build a constable house so alex can imprison me then? so you can prove that alex really is a constable[CoolGuy]

Lily:

Well she said that she healed me [LoI]

K:

Hmm

Okay will build a constable house, but what's your role?

Vlad:

mine?

i am also a constable, remember?

either way, alex can imprison me and if that really happens she is telling the truth... if not oh well.

K:

Hmm..

Let me check Francesca one more time

Vlad:

Also i do feel hanging F is a fatal mistake but since you already hanged a priest might as well hang a doctor[CoolGuy]

Killing a constable(me) still leaves a chance for next day, without a single doctor it is game over.

K:

Could you show me proof that Francesca is a doctor?

Vlad:

Proof no. but I know Leon is not a doctor, so it is unlikely we have no doctors at all.
won't make any point if you hang the doctor[Lol]

K:

It's alright, we will hang Francesca this turn, and hang you next turn
Meanwhile I will build a hospital tonight

Vlad:

Ok. cast the vote

K:

Francesca has hardly spoken this turn so it's a bit sus that you're trying to misdirect the hangman from her

Vlad:

Huey done. K, whatever you say.

Alex:

Hang on. We have a hospital no!?

K:

Do we?

Huey (Mod):

Not all players have voted and it isn't the deadline yet.

Vlad:

but it doesnt change anything does it? 4 votes vs 2 and only leon left who said he votes as K

K:

Oh

Alex:

K, if not your open role, I really suspect you!!!!!![Lol]

K:

Should we build a watchtower or constabulary?

Leon:

This is going nowhere, I vote for Francesca, for the second time following K.

K:

We build a constable station

Alex:

Watch tower

Protecting other buildings is the priority

Vlad:

haha.. pf course you would say that

K:

Okay

Vlad:

to avoid being proved wrong

Alex:

Station and imprisoned Vlad won't change much

Huey (Mod):

Vote Tally:

Leon: 2 (Vlad, Chris)

Vlad: 2 (Zoey, Francesca)

Francesca: 5 (Aleta, k, Alex, Lily, Leon)

Abstained: Fayre

Huey (Mod):

End of Day 3.

Francesca stood at the edge of the wooden platform, the cold wind biting at her skin, her hands bound tightly at her sides. The village of Vigilstone, once a place of community and trust, now buzzed with uneasy whispers as the crowd gathered, their faces a mixture of suspicion and fear. Francesca, diligent and intelligent, had spent years tending to the village's needs—helping in the fields, repairing homes, and offering counsel to those who sought her guidance. She was a steady presence, admired for her work ethic and quick wit. Yet, despite her tireless efforts to serve the village, she had been accused of dark deeds—whispers of treason, of witchcraft, of something sinister.

The noose was placed around her neck, but her eyes were clear, unafraid, and defiant. She knew she was innocent, and she had never faltered in her commitment to the people of Vigilstone. But in the wake of the demon attacks and the rising fear, the village had turned on her. There were no voices of defense, no advocates to speak for her.

With a final glance at the familiar faces in the crowd—some filled with regret, others with cold judgment—Francesca took a slow breath. The lever was pulled. Her body went limp, and the once-vibrant heart of the village, now silenced, hung in the cold morning air. Though her life was taken in the name of justice, the truth of her innocence wouldn't remain buried in the shadows of Vigilstone's grief.

Francesca was hanged. She was a doctor.

It is now night, village, go to sleep!

Vlad:

Good job, K.

[Lo!]

The village had barely begun to breathe again after the bloodshed of the previous nights when Alex, the Master Demon, and her two companions unleashed their final fury. Alex led the charge with a terrible roar, her dark magic crackling through the air as she tore through the streets with a vengeance. Behind her, Leon and Lily followed their demonic forms, weaving through the village like shadows of destruction.

Lily's power twisted the very earth, sending cracks through the stone streets and crumbling the walls of homes, while Leon's fiery breath scorched everything in its path. The town square, where the villagers once gathered to hang the wrongly accused, where the blood of the innocent Chris and Francesca had barely dried, was now a chaotic inferno, filled with screams of terror as the townspeople scrambled to escape.

Kay, the hardworking mayor, stood at the edge of the Town Hall, watching the destruction unfold. His heart pounded with a mixture of fear and determination, his mind racing with thoughts of how to rally the villagers, to save them from the inevitable. But the weight of his own inadequacy pressed heavily on him. He had failed to unite the people when they needed him most.

The screams of his fellow villagers echoed through the night, and the sound of crackling flames filled the air. But Kay could not bring himself to run. He had been the one to lead this town, to speak of its strength and future, and now that future was crumbling into ash. His legs were heavy, and his breath came in ragged gasps, but he refused to leave.

The demon spotted him standing alone amidst the chaos. Alex, the Master Demon, her eyes gleaming with malice, stepped forward, her presence alone enough to freeze the blood in his veins. She sneered at him, the wreckage of the village around her making her power seem all the more absolute. With a battle cry, he lunged at her, his sword raised, though his arms trembled with exhaustion and fear. But Alex's power was too great, and with a flick of her wrist, she sent him crashing to the ground.

As the demons moved on, their victory assured, Kay's body lay still among the ashes of Vigilstone, a final symbol of the village's lost hope—brave, but tragically too late. The villagers, broken by the sheer force of the onslaught, fled in panic, abandoning everything they had worked for. With the death of all their esteemed citizens, there was no fighting back, no hope to cling to. As the last of the terrified villagers disappeared into the night, Alex stood tall amidst the ruin, her eyes glowing with the satisfaction of destruction, the balance of power forever tilted in her favor.

The streets that had once been filled with children's laughter and the steady hum of daily life were now silent, save for the whispering wind. The Town Hall, though still standing, was empty, its doors swinging in the breeze. The constable station was little more than a charred ruin, a hollow reminder of the resistance that had been crushed. The hospital, where the last of the wounded had been treated, was abandoned. The healing hands that once tended to the sick now stilled forever.

The demons stood at the heart of the village, triumphant, their dark power restored as they surveyed the land they had taken back. With her sharp eyes, Lily scanned the horizon, ensuring no human would dare return. Leon's fury had been spent, but his satisfaction was evident; the village's stubborn resistance had been broken, its spirit extinguished. Alex, the Master Demon, stood tall, the blood of her enemies staining her hands, her victory complete.

The humans who had survived the chaos had fled in fear, scattering into the wilderness, never to return. Once a beacon of hope and defiance, the village was now nothing more than a forgotten memory. The land was theirs once more, and the balance of nature was restored as the demons had promised. No more would the humans encroach upon their territory.

As the demons looked out across the desolation, they knew their work was done. The land was quiet, and the balance of power finally shifted. And in the distance, the faintest whisper of the wind seemed to carry a final, ominous echo: Vigilstone was no more.

Huey (Mod):

Congrats Team Demons. You have won. Great job!

The number of Demons alive outnumbered the number of Villagers alive. Team Demons won.

Chris:

Vladimir, well played!

K. Aleta Zoey [ThumbsDown]

Huey (Mod):

Vlad figured it out but no one believed him [Lol]

Or only you did Chris :D

Leon:

Your biggest mistake was not killing me without a reason to. [CoolGuy]

Zoey:

If Vlad didn't say I'm a demon, I would not vote for him

Huey (Mod):

Vlad called Alex and Lily out too

Vlad:

Not Lily.

I was wrong/unsure about 3rd demon. Knew it was one of the guards but with Alex focusing on shifting from Aleta/Zoey i thought it would be one of the two especially since Z followed Alex on Chris promptly.

Still well played Demons.

Good Job[Salute]

Leon:

[Handshake]

Vlad:

Actually voting for me was a reasonable thing. If you killed me earlier it would open the clear path. Hanging F though was...[Facepalm]

Huey (Mod):

Vlad had brilliant deductions but he was like that Greek oracle who knew the truth but no one believed her

Leon:

Cassandra

Vlad:

which on top of that, is fittingly a tragic hero[Grin]

Huey (Mod):

If you guys had worked together and healed/protected the right people or even imprisoned 2 demons instead of just 1 there was a good chance village could have won

Leon:

It really was very close, even though it didn't seem like it. We had a lot of trouble trying to decide which things to do and knowing that we had to shift to a post-Leon strategy if/when I was hung. Lucky for me there was too much disagreement to clearly enact one villager strategy.

Vlad:

The Mayor built the Constable Station and imprisoned Leon.

wait does that mean we had 2 imprisonment chances?

dammit

Leon:

Yes

Vlad:

I also went for Leon completely ignoring mayor might imprison a demon too..

basically if he/me coordinated and went for Alex and Leon..

Lily would not have the firepower to free you right?

or would she still kill a guard making it 3 demons vs 3 villagers..?

Leon:

I was protected by two different people on night 1 then the next morning thanked everyone for protecting me, not knowing that it actually happened.

Huey (Mod):

She would have killed a guard. But Alex and Leon was basically blocked from doing anything.

Vlad:

so what would happen then?

Huey (Mod):

Day 3, voting to hang

More arguing. Alex and Leon protesting they imprisoned the wrong people, getting K to hang another innocent villager [Lol]

Vlad:

[LoI][LoI][LoI]. I meant rules wise. do imprisoned ppl count as outnumbering one side

Huey:

To be fair it's not on K, everyone made their own decisions. Villagers really needed to work together

Yes in the rules it states imprisoned people are still alive

They can't vote or do actions at night. They can be hanged

Vlad:

ah so basically 3vs 3 is fine to continue. I thought same number is already game over due to obvious stalemate then yeah, we still had a chance

Huey (Mod):

Rules says have to surpass. Ghosts have 1 vote left remember?

Vlad:

oh yeah, feyre is there to[Facepalm]

Leon:

I would have voted to hang Alex anyway, protesting my innocence, even against Huey.

Vlad:

[LoI][LoI][LoI]
